Positive Attitude

Yes, you read correctly. We do not tolerate negativity in camp. We want our hunters to enjoy and appreciate their time in the Field. Positive attitudes are contagious. Negativity is also contagious. We ask that our clients not forget the true meaning of hunting: to have fun. The harvest is just icing on the cake.

Arrival to Camp

At MFO, we aim to provide a relaxing atmosphere and quarters close to the hunting areas, This sought-after region provides some of the best hunting opportunities in the country.

Bedding and linens are provided in all of the lodges

Your arrival time is 4:00 the evening prior to your hunt. This is important, as we will start things off with a trap Competition and hunter orientation meeting.

Departure time is by noon the day after your hunt ends.

Meals

Breakfast will be either Burrito or Breakfast Sandwich

Lunch will consist of sandwiches, chips, cookies, snack cakes, assorted crackers and granola bars, etc.

When hunting all day, you may pack a lunch.

The Hunt

At MFO, we want to give our clients the experience of a lifetime. Through the years of determination and success, we have formulated a system that works efficiently.

Your guide will coordinate a wake-up time for you the evening before your hunt. Most clients will drive themselves to and from the Field/Marsh . This allows you to get prepared at your own pace and leave camp at your leisure.

Your guide will meet you at the lodge and drive out to the day's field/marsh. Doing this allows for everyone to leave together and avoids getting lost without reception

After everyone is settled you will receive a safety meeting and rundown of what to expect. We like everyone to have a good idea of what is expected, we find that good structure for the hunt allows everyone to have a better and SAFE time.

Again, please let us know on the survey if you have physical limitations and need further guide assistance. Hunters must abide by all state and federal game laws when hunting with MFO. The use of illicit drugs is strictly prohibited on MFO grounds, inside or out. Alcohol is permitted, but clients are NOT allowed to drink before going afield or while out there. Smoking afield is strictly prohibited.

Meat processing and taxidermy services are provided by MFO for an additional charge.

Transporting wild game is highly regulated, All Migratory Birds are protected federally under the Migratory Bird Act, due to these laws they require all birds to have a wing intact for travel. Follow MFO on Instagram and Facebook for frequent updates and photos.

Now that you're familiar with the rules, please complete our questionnaire so we can be fully prepared for your arrival.
